HIGHMATCH

FUNDAMENTAL DIFFERENCE

While HighMatch shares similarities when it comes to what we assess (e.g., personality, cognitive ability, and motivation), the output of that process is very different.

HighMatch is highly personalized and flexible; our workplace psychologists configure the solution to measure and provide insights on those traits and abilities that matter most in the role and at your organization. Wonderlic is broad and rigid; an off-the-shelf product with limited, user-initiated customization capabilities.

WORD OF MOUTH MATTERS

HighMatch clients rated our solution higher than Wonderlic clients rated their solution across almost every rating category in G2, the leading software review website.

PRICE STABILITY

We have heard from dozens of prospective mid-sized clients in the last 30 days who experienced a 4X price increase after Year 1 of their contract with Wonderlic. With HighMatch, your contract cost in subsequent years will never increase unreasonably. Clearly Wonderlic clients can't say the same.
